Please be noted that your ID number, other information of your identity, credit/debit card number, and password belong to sensitive personal information that is likely to result in damage to your personal dignity or damage to your personal or property safety once disclosed or illegally used. We only process sensitive personal information with sufficient necessity and only after implementing strict protective measures. If you do not provide the aforesaid sensitive personal information, we may not be able to cooperate with a Business Partner or may not be able to provide the service to you for the aforesaid purposes.

2. Cross-border Transfer and provision of personal data

Omterra may transfer or provide your personal information only if such transfer or provision is in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

To fulfill the purposes provided in this Privacy Notice, we may transfer your personal data to third parties for processing, in order to help us provide support for our operations and services in relation to realize the functionality of our products and/or services. Such recipients may be non-Omterra third parties, such as service providers entrusted by Omterra, including hosting or IT maintenance service providers.

For the purpose of central management of Business Partner Contact within Omterra Group, your personal information is processed in the information systems operated and maintained by Omterra outside of the People's Republic of China. Siemens Energy AG, as the headquarter of Omterra, acts as the overseas recipient ("Overseas Recipient") and can access and use your personal information as listed in Section 1 above, including but not limited to full name, telephone number, work email address, delivery address, work address and other necessary personal information. The Overseas Recipient may collect, use, store and transfer such data to conduct business worldwide. In such cases, Omterra takes measures to implement necessary safeguards and ensure the Overseas Recipient to meet and comply with the standards as required by the Chinese laws related to personal data protection, as well as monitors the Overseas Recipient to use and process your personal information only limited to the purpose of cross-border transfer.

In addition, the Intercompany Agreement is signed between Siemens Energy AG as the headquarter company and all of its affiliated companies within Omterra Group to meet the needs of conducting business activities among the Omterra Group companies and the operations of the affiliated companies. The affiliated companies within the Omterra Group may, according to its need, access to and conduct other necessary processing activities for the personal information of the Business Partner Contact which has been transferred overseas.

When Omterra is required by applicable laws and regulations to sign a standard contract of cross-border transfer of personal information ("Standard Contract") with the Oversea Recipient to ensure that the personal information is transferred overseas in a legal and proper way, you will act as the third-party beneficiary under the Standard Contract in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations as well as the Standard Contract, unless you explicitly refuse within 30 days after receipt of this notification. When Omterra has signed the Standard Contract with the Oversea Recipient, you may request Omterra and/or the Oversea Recipient to provide you the copy of Standard Contract after Omterra desensitizes the contents involving trade secrets and/or confidential business information in the Standard Contract.

If you wish to exercise any of the statutory rights towards the Oversea Recipient under the Chinese laws related to personal data protection or any question / request regarding the data protection policies, data security capabilities and/or data processing activities of the Oversea Recipient, you may contact Omterra Data Privacy Organization as stated in section 6.

3. Retention Periods

Omterra stores your personal data only to the extent reasonably necessary for fulfilling the aforementioned purposes. We will erase the personal data if the retention of the personal data is no longer necessary, (i) for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed; or (ii) to comply with legal obligations (such as retention obligations under tax or commercial law).
